SHAMAN'S HEART, SHAMAN'S DRUM

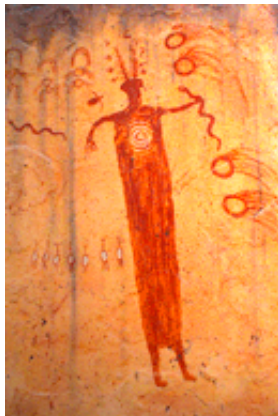

Soul Purpose & Healing Initiations

Shamans know that we each come into this lifetime with purposes our souls want to express and with destinies that want to be lived. You will explore your own soul's destiny, in depth, in this week-long workshop, using rites of initiation, fire ceremony, soul tracking, shamanic journeys, and solo time in the extraordinary wild environment of Schweibenalp.

One of the central questions that you will be working with in this workshop is Are you living the dream the universe has for you?

You will journey back in time to discover the source of an original wounding that may have derailed your destiny as well as track into the future to retrieve the luminous imprint of your higher calling. Working shamanically with the four chambers of your soul, you will discover old contracts that have kept you bound to fate, renegotiate soul contracts, retrieve your luminous soul of childhood and the innate gifts that are absolutely yours for embodying your destiny.

This workshop is open to both women and men.

THE SHAMAN'S MIRROR

Deepening Healing Practices & Shamanic Seeing

As shamanic practitioners, we are in an ongoing dance with keeping our power connections charged and expanding our knowledge and partnership with the spirits. This is the Shaman's Net of Power which includes all the spirits and territories of the three shamanic worlds and your relationship to them.

This workshop explores the role of shamanism and shamanic traditions in our communities and today's world. We will explore the use of our shamanic experience to help alleviate pain and suffering as well as the uses of shamanic tools, healing practices and rituals for creating protected healing environments.

Our day and night together will include both shamanic practice and shamanic supervision. We will have an exchange of shamanic ideas and experiences, questions and answers. We will learn some new divination practices and share a Shamanic Spirit Canoe for healing purposes.

This workshop is open to both women and men.

Prerequisite: Good shamanic journey skills and success in contacting your power animals and spirit teachers in nonordinary reality.
